

Austine Ajwang

Attaché

About me

My name is Austine Okoth Ajwang. Currently, I'm pursuing a major in Information security and Forensics as a Computer Science student at KCA University. Through my studies, I have gained a strong foundation in programming languages such as Java, Python, C++, as well as experience in web development, database management, and operating systems.

Relevant Coursework

- Principles of Information Security
- Information Systems Auditing
- Web Application Development
- Telecommunications
- Mobile Programming
- Network Security
- Cybersecurity

Education

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN APPLIED COMPUTING
KCA UNIVERSITY
(CONTINUING)

KENYA CERTIFICATE OF SECONDARY EDUCATION
AGAI MIXED SEC. SCHOOL
2015 - 2018

KENYA CERTIFICATE OF PRIMARY EDUCATION
SONDU LIFE-SHINE
2006 - 2014

Skills

- Knowledge of network protocols, architectures & security technologies
- Experience with vulnerability scanning and penetration testing tools
- Familiarity with forensic tools and techniques (e.g., FTK, Axiom)
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Excellent problem-solving and analytic skills

Hobbies

🎵 Listening to music

🏊 Swimming

✈ Traveling

🎮 Gaming

🥾 Hiking

Experience

- CyberShujaa CTF, I & M Bank Inter-Uni CTF Competition, Parklands Branch 2022
- Participated in Capture the Flag competitions as a member of the KCA University team
- Conducted research on emerging cybersecurity threats and presented findings to the university's Cybersecurity Club